

Are YOU Real World Ready?

Career fairs are an ideal opportunity for students to get in front of interested employers, make connections, practice their One-Minute Commercial and maybe even find the perfect job or internship. And this final fair of the Spring Semester is the biggest one yet. More recruiters. Over 200 tables over the course of the two days. And more opportunities.

Employers attending this event, indicated they are looking to fill 1,425 internships and another 3,742 full-time positions. Is your dream job among them?

UA Spring Career Days 2015
Tuesday & Wednesday
March 31 and April 1
11am to 4pm
Student Union Memorial Center 3rd Floor
#UASpringFair

This UA Career Services comprehensive career fair combines summer internship and full-time opportunities from a wide variety of sectors including: public service, government, healthcare and industry. Look for more opportunities and more options for students in ALL majors.

Check online at www.career.arizona.edu to determine what companies are coming and when. There is some overlap, but each day different opportunities are available. Students seeking full-time employment after graduation, career-related experience prior to graduation or just looking for potential careers will find opportunities and useful information at UA Spring Career Days.

Just a small sample of companies attending this year's event include: Amazon, Apple, Charles Schwab, Dillard's, GoDaddy, Honeywell, IBM, Insight Global, Make-A-Wish America, Mesa Airlines, Professional Sports Publications, Solar Solution AZ, Sonoran Wings Aviation, Ticketmaster and Yelp.

Don't miss this opportunity!!!
