

Summer 2016 Employment Opportunities: Computer Science Instructors and Teaching Assistants

The Johns Hopkins University Center for Talented Youth (CTY) is seeking instructors and teaching assistants for our summer programs. CTY offers challenging academic programs for highly talented elementary, middle, and high school students from across the country and around the world. Positions are available at residential and day sites at colleges, universities, and schools on the east and west coasts, as well as internationally in Hong Kong.*

We are currently seeking individuals for a number of courses, including:

- Fundamentals of Computer Science
- Foundations of Programming
- Data Structures and Algorithms
- Introduction to Robotics

Course descriptions can be found at http://cty.jhu.edu/jobs/summer/courses/math_computer_science.html#computer_science.

Why teach for CTY?

- share your passion for computer science with highly motivated and talented students
- be a part of an intellectual community
- develop your teaching skills in a supportive, collegial environment
- work alongside dedicated educators from around the world
- limited class size (18 students), plus an instructor and assistant for each class, ensures a low student-teacher ratio
- salary plus room and board at our residential sites

2016 Program Core Dates*

- Session 1: June 23 - July 16, 2016
- Session 2: July 16 - August 6, 2016

Terms of Employment

- Starting salary for two sessions is $4,800 - $6,000 for instructors and $2,400 for TAs
- Room and board are provided at residential sites. Travel assistance is provided to Hong Kong.
